Educator’s On Call – Substitute Teachers

Teaching helps to build our future leaders and we believe students at Temple University are ready to be those pillars of inspiration in the community. We encourage you to take a step into a career that will make an impact on the lives of many.

Educators On Call is looking to build a strong and diverse team of substitutes teachers. If you’re interested in gaining real experience, working a flexible schedule, earning competitive pay rates and a real career opportunity, APPLY NOW!

An Educators On Call substitute teacher is responsible for:
- Providing instruction
- Managing the classroom environment
- Promoting student learning in the absence of the regular classroom teacher
- Implement teacher lesson plans
- Assign student class work and homework
- Maintain classroom control and discipline

Educators On Call substitute teachers provide coverage for grades K – 12. Content areas include, but are not limited to math, science, social studies, english/language arts, foreign language, special education & technology.

Substitute teachers must also complete a daily report or evaluation to communicate any pertinent information resulting from the day’s events to the permanent classroom teacher.

A bachelor’s degree, in any content area, is required (but an education degree is preferred) for this charter school substitute position, in Pennsylvania.
