

KATORAH N. WILLIAMS

Temple University
Department of Criminal Justice
1115 W. Polett Walk
517 Gladfelter Hall
Philadelphia, PA 19122
Katorah.williams@temple.edu

EDUCATION

- 2017- 202x Ph.D. Criminal Justice, Temple University, Philadelphia, PA
- 2015- 2017 Attended Immaculata University, Immaculata, PA (PsyD in Clinical Psychology)
- 2012- 2015 M.S. Criminal Justice, West Chester University of Pennsylvania, West Chester, PA
- 2008- 2011 B.S. Neuroscience and Psychology, Temple University, Philadelphia, PA
- 2006- 2008 Attended University of Maryland College Park, College Park, MD

RESEARCH AND TEACHING INTERESTS

Privacy and Surveillance	Critical Criminology	Black and Black Feminist Criminology
Social Inequality	“Street Smarts”	Qualitative Methods
Social Engineering	White Collar Crime	Survey Design and Measurement

PEER REVIEWED PUBLICATIONS

Peer Reviewed Publications

5. Williams, K., Ducoste, M. & Rege, A. (2020). “Educating multidisciplinary undergraduates on security and privacy”. Proceedings of the IEEE Cyber Science Conference.
4. Rege, A., Yang, S., Mendlein, A., Williams, K., Su, S. & Moskal, S. (2020). "Dissecting cyberadversarial intrusion stages via interdisciplinary observations". Proceedings from the 6th ACM International Workshop on Security and Privacy Analytics 2020.
3. Rege, A., Mendlein, A. & Williams, K. (2019). "Security and privacy education for STEM undergraduates: A shoulder surfing course project". Proceedings of the IEEE Frontiers in Education.
2. Rege, A., Williams, K. & Mendlein, A. (2019). "A social engineering course project for undergraduate students across multiple disciplines". Proceedings of the IEEE Cyber Science Conference.
1. Rege, A., Williams, K. & Mendlein, A. (2019). "An experiential learning cybersecurity project for multiple STEM undergraduates". Proceedings of the 9th IEEE Integrated STEM Education Conference (ISEC).

WORKS IN PROGRESS

2. Williams, K. & Olaghere A. “Critical exploration of halfway houses.”
1. Williams, K. “Reentry and navigational challenges.”

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

8. Rege, A., Yang, S., Mendlein, A., Williams, K., Su, S. & Moskal, S. (2020). "Dissecting Cyberadversarial Intrusion Stages via Interdisciplinary Observations". Proceedings from the 6th ACM International Workshop on Security and Privacy Analytics 2020.
7. Williams, K., Ducoste, M. & Rege, A. (2020). "Educating multidisciplinary undergraduates on security and privacy". Proceedings of the IEEE Cyber Science Conference.
6. Mendlein, A. & Williams, K. (2019). "Graduate student experiences in cybersecurity field research". The American Society of Criminology, San Francisco, California, USA.
5. Rege, A., Williams, K., & Mendlein, A. (2019). "A social engineering course project for undergraduate students across multiple disciplines". The American Society of Criminology, San Francisco, California, USA.
4. Rege, A., Mendlein, A. & Williams, K. (2019). "Security and Privacy Education for STEM Undergraduates: A Shoulder Surfing Course Project". Paper presented at the IEEE Frontiers in Education, October 17-19, Cincinnati, Ohio.
3. Rege, A., Williams, K. & Mendlein, A. (2019). "A Social Engineering Course Project for Undergraduate Students ". IEEE Cyber Science Conference, Oxford University, Oxford, UK.
2. Williams, K. & Rege, A. (2019). "A Qualitative Exploration of Adversarial Adaptability, Group Dynamics, and Cyber Intrusion Chains". Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences, Baltimore, MD, USA.
1. Rege, A., Williams, K., Mendlein, A. (2019). "An experiential learning cybersecurity project for multiple STEM undergraduates". IEEE Integrated STEM Education Conference. Princeton University, Princeton, New Jersey, USA

INVITED ADDRESSES

March 11, 2021	A Conversation on Race, Gender, and Justice with Nikki Jones, PhD Co-Moderator, Temple University, Department of Criminal Justice
March 9, 2021	Online Dating Scams Guest Lecturer in Undergraduate Computer Crime Class Temple University, Department of Criminal Justice
March 2, 2021; March 4, 2021	Human Smuggling and Human Trafficking Guest Lecturer in Undergraduate Organized Crime Class Temple University, Department of Criminal Justice
October 22, 2020	Why should you consider graduate school? Panelist, Temple University, Department of Criminal Justice
February 8, 2021; September 14, 2020; February 3, 2020	The Personal Statement Guest Speaker in Undergraduate Professional Development Class Temple University, Department of Criminal Justice

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

January 2021- May 2021	Research Assistant to Dr. Aunshul Rege at Temple University Using Data Science to Study Environmental Racism, Justice, and Policy Funded by the National Science Foundation via Columbia University
August 2019- August 2020	Research Assistant to Dr. Aunshul Rege at Temple University CAREER: Applying a Criminological Framework to Understand Adaptive Adversarial Decision-Making Processes on Critical Infrastructure Cyberattacks Funded by the National Science Foundation
June 2018- May 2019	Research Assistant to Dr. Aunshul Rege at Temple University EAGER: Collaborative: A Criminology- Based Simulation of Dynamic Adversarial Behavior in Cyberattacks Funded by the National Science Foundation

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Fall 2017; Spring 2018	CRJ 2501: Introduction to Criminal Law	Teaching Assistant
Fall 2017; Spring 2018	CRJ 2201: Criminal Courts and Criminal Justice	Teaching Assistant
Fall 2017; Spring 2018	CRJ 0812: Criminal Behavior	Teaching Assistant
Fall 2017	CRJ 2000: Ethics, Crime, and Justice (Special Topics Course)	Teaching Assistant

GRANTS AND FELLOWSHIPS

Recipient	May 2019
First Summer Research Initiative (FSRI) Grant Temple University, Office of Graduate Studies Total Funding: $6,500.00

SERVICE

Service to the Department

Diversity Committee	2020-Present
Undergraduate Student Mentoring Center	2017-2019

Service to the Field

Vice President, Women in Cybersecurity (WiCys), Temple U Chapter	2021- Present
------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Women in Cybersecurity (WiCys), Temple University Chapter	2021-Present
American Society of Criminology (ASC)	2017-2018
American Psychological Association (APA)	2015-2017
Alpha Phi Sigma, Criminal Justice Honor Society	2015- Present