

Memory Care

Providers in the Philadelphia Area

Visit us at linktr.ee/neurohiv

Below is a list of local clinics and organizations that provide support for people with memory problems and their caregivers.

These include things like

- Medical care
- Caregiver support
- In-home advice
- Referrals to supportive living situations, like assisted living

Check with your health insurance plan about coverage.

Philadelphia Corporation for Aging (PCA)

Helpline: 215-765-9040

General contact: 215-765-9000

pcacares.org

Social services for older adults and adults with dementia and other disabilities

Servicios disponibles en Español

Catholic Housing and Community Services: Senior Community Centers

chcsphiladelphia.org/senior-centers

Multiple locations, including:

Norris Square Senior Community Center

2121 N. Howard St., Philadelphia, PA 19122

215-423-7241

Bilingual center for older adults

Dementia Friendly PA

(215) 686-8450

dementiafriendlypa.org/

Local resources for people with cognitive impairment and their caregivers

Mayor's Commission on Aging

(215) 686-8450

phila.gov/departments/mayors-commission-on-aging

Local resources for older adults

Skills2Care

dementiacollaborative.com/find-a-clinician-near-you

Helps people with dementia and their caregivers in managing the challenges of dementia at home. Visit the link above to find an Occupational Therapist (OT) certified in Skills2Care.

Caregiver Action Network

caregiveraction.org

For help finding supportive living situations:

- Senior Living Specialists of Philadelphia
 - Mindy Mozenter, 610-256-9983
 - Mindy@seniorlivingphilly.com
 - seniorlivingspecialistsphilly.com
- Assisted Living Locators
 - 1-800-267-7816
 - contact@assistedlivinglocators.com
 - assistedlivinglocators.com
- ElderCare Locator
 - 1-800-677-1116
 - eldercare.acl.gov