Mean of household income by state (wtd.)

Median of household income by state (wtd.)

Q40 of household income by state (wtd.)

Q60 of household income by state (wtd.)
Percent of respondents with income at least $30,000

The map shows the percentage of respondents with income at least $30,000 across the United States. The colors range from light pink to dark red, indicating varying percentages across different states. The darker the color, the higher the percentage of respondents with income at least $30,000.
Percent of respondents with income at least $30,000

The map shows the percent of respondents with income at least $30,000 across different states in the United States. The states are color-coded to indicate the percentage of respondents with income at least $30,000, with darker shades representing higher percentages and lighter shades representing lower percentages.